

I AM THE INTERSECTION OF POWER, PASSION, & PURPOSE

Certified Life & Executive Coach, TEDx Speaker, Author, Podcast Host, Retreat Cultivator, and Change Champion for YOU. Lolita E. Walker is the single mom of one, who is at the forefront of a movement that empowers women and teams to embrace their challenges AND triumphs, act in their strengths, and thrive in the greatness that drives individual and group ownership toward a renewed vision of excellence. She helps you to truly feel and trust the power within your pause.

After nearly 20 years, Lolita packed her faith, strengths, and experiences, then leaped from her senior position in corporate america. With a strong foundation and her savings account, she founded Walker & Walker Enterprises, a personal and professional coaching and change consultancy. Her company, Walker & Walker Enterprises, creates intentional sacred-spaces for individuals, corporations, agencies, and groups.

Whether individual, teams of 5, 205, or beyond, Lolita is an expert at identifying, then successfully navigating and sustaining both change and transition for herself and for others. Her coaching, speaking, courses, retreats, podcast, and products leverage her proprietary strategies that continue to empower others to achieve results.

Lolita and her team guide you to renewed clarity and ownership. They creatively challenge your thinking to create road maps that align your individual or group's vision, core values, and results. Discovery, trust, accountability, clarity, and commitment are a few of the cornerstones that Lolita has built her coaching and consultancy upon. She is an engineer and MBA by trade, and uniquely fuses her technical, business, and personal expertise to guide others through the newness of their changing situations, which for some, prove difficult to accept and navigate.

Her book, "The Intersection of You & Change" leads readers through 17 stops of challenging discovery. It shifts your mindset and current thinking of fear to confidence and chaos to clarity. According to one of her long-time clients, "this book is Lolita's signature retreat in print. It is simply POWERFUL!" A natural extension of her portfolio is her podcast, "Coaching, Cocktails, & Conversations," where she meets you where you are and coaches you up to where you need and deserve to be, while having conversations around, what she calls, her virtual kitchen table.

Lolita graduated from Morgan State University as an Industrial Engineer and Simmons College as a Masters in Business Administration. She is a woman and minority-owned small business owner, an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated and holds positions in several organizations. She has been where you are and has gotten to where you seek to be - in a renewed state of being free and thriving. The benefit of having a partner who has reached the finish line successfully and systematically, is knowing that her coaching program, products, and services are the enablers to help you and your teams soar beyond where they are today.
